The conference will take place on May 9th, 2019 in the premises of the University College “Wisdom” in collaboration with “UNIVERSITA DELLA CALABRIA” – Italy and “THE EUROPEAN COLLEGE OF KOSOVO” (ECK), Prishtina – Kosovo.

This conference aims to address scientific research in the fields of Humanities such as Justice, Psychology, Communication, Economics, History, International Relations, Political Science, Public Relations, Business, Marketing, Human Rights, Sociology, Education and Literature, considering that it is necessary that professors, researchers, lawmakers, practitioners in the field of economics, business and social sciences, public and private higher education institutions within the country, in the region or beyond, bring their contribution (in person or virtually) with their ideas, knowledge and scientific arguments in the function of the intercultural development of the society, collaborating to give a contemporary outcome which will be an added value to the future of the civil society.

This conference has a Scientific Board composed of representatives of Academic Units and Professorship of the University College “Wisdom”. This board also includes representatives from the academic world and personalities of different fields in our country and region.

Criteria and terms for admission:

1. Abstracts must:

- be in Albanian and English language, in accordance with scientific standards,
- contain no more than 250 words, including key words (no more than five words).
- written in Times New Roman font, space 1.5, size 12.

2. Upon submission, the abstracts will be evaluated by the Scientific Board of the Conference.

3. Deadline for submitting the abstract: 20 / 03/2019.

4. Response to the acceptance of the paper: 03 / 04/2019.

5. Submission of full scientific work by applicants should be either in Albanian or English language, accepted until 29 /04/2019.

Lecturers, scholars, academics, research students in the field of law, economics and social sciences are invited to participate and present their research papers.

Abstract should be submitted in MS-Word format, to the following e-mail address:
wisdomscientificjournalwsj@yahoo.com

Papers accepted by the Conference Scientific Board will be published in the Conference Proceedings Book, (with ISBN) and the authors will receive a certificate for paper presentation.

Before paper submission, authors should read carefully the admission criteria.

It is highly valued if you can share this information with your colleagues and associates!

Cordially,

The Organising Committee
